HARRISON HILL JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

THE VISTA

IC

1962

This 1962 "Vista" is respectfully dedicated to Mr. Alexander Simpson, who is retiring after having taught at Harrison Hill since its actual beginning in 1925. He has been a friend to all students who attended at any time during those thirty-seven years and will undoubtedly continue to be a friend to both his former students and his fellow faculty members. To Mr. Simpson, we say "Thanks for everything."

Climb high
Climb far
Your goal the sky
Your aim the star.

PRINCIPAL

Mr. Kermit Leininger

The head man at the control center, our principal, had a greater load this year than in previous years with the addition of the ninth grade and the accompanying facilities. He has the unique job of administering a combined junior high and elementary school with a total of 1,380 students.

STAFF ASSISTANT

An indispensable addition to the staff this year was Mr. Glenn Mulligan, staff assistant. In addition to helping the principal direct our journey, he was responsible for books, rentals, guidance, and testing.

CAFETERIA

"The way to a 'student's' heart is through his stomach."

Our cafeteria workers and custodians have an immense task fueling our motors and keeping our school a clean and orderly launch pad for our futures. Executing their tasks so diligently, they must agree wholeheartedly with the quotations stated here.

"Cleanliness is next to godliness."

CUSTODIANS

Our veteran science teacher explains a principle of electricity.

The coffee cans are being used by our future artists.

A computer would be a big help here.

Let's see now, where did I put that cafeteria card?

These two say the touch system is "A-OK."

Lunch time is the period of relaxation and enjoyment!

These ninth graders admire the coveted McMillen awards.

A photographer chuckles as he "shoots" a "Vista" picture.

This "Beacon" shutterbug calls a "hold."

The student council is a representative body of all the homerooms. Its purpose is to hold us in orbit by expressing student feeling and opinion to the school administration and, in turn, raking back to the homerooms the interpretation of school policy in matters concerning conduct and attitude. Officers are Cindy Osborne, president; John McCallister, vice-president; and Joyce Hilsmier, secretary-treasurer.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Activities

These are the students who under the supervision of Mrs. Donna Springer have made this book possible. Editor Mickey Goldstein and Associate Editor Steve Gates, with the help of Anne Biteman, art editor; Gil Haynie, sports editor; and Eugene Schmidt, activities editor, have identified pictures, glued photos in the dummy, and taxed their brains endlessly thinking up ideas for an appropriate cover. Bruce Roth took care of the sales. It has been work, but they have enjoyed it. Their only wish is that you too will enjoy this "Vista."

The "Vista" editors are contemplating exactly what to put on the 48 pages, which are possible to have since subscriptions went over the 400 goal.

YEARBOOK

In order to find a name for our first yearbook, a name contest in connection with the circulation campaign was initiated. Credit for naming our yearbook goes to seventh grader Pamela Roth, Room 140.

Pamela Roth

Here are the students who with the help of their sponsors, Mrs. Donna Springer and Miss Georgia Thompson, have kept you "in the know" on all school activities this past school year. Sue Berckmueller, editor; Kathy Hawkins, assistant editor; Candy Carroll, news editor; Carol Breidenstein, feature editor; and Larry Shine, sports editor, have discovered there's more to compiling a newspaper than "meets the eye, but have enjoyed keeping Harrison Hill well-informed.

BEACON

The "Beacon" editors learn the fundamentals of putting out a paper. The week the paper goes out is always a very busy one.

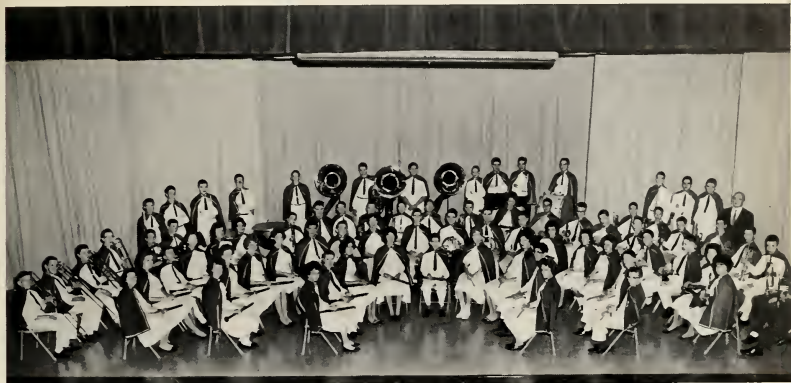

The Concert Choir is the main performing group at concerts and other programs. Those serving as officers under the guidance of Miss Audrey Hochstetler are Sue Berckmueller, president; Frances West, vice-president; Susan Hovde, secretary-treasurer; and Marietta Marquart and Sharon Miller, librarians.

CHOIR

The Seventh Grade Choir gives the members a greater opportunity to sing as an organized group. Its officers are Laura Azar, president; Susan Roehm, vice-president; and Barbara Clark, secretary-treasurer.

The Concert Band under the direction of Mr. John W. Broom is one of the principal performing groups. Its purpose is to study and perform in public a wide variety of band literature. Board members are Patty DeVore, Tim Williams, Judy Lee, Dan Bowers, Skip Hallam, John McCallister, and Mary Ann Simmons.

BAND

Also under the direction of Mr. Broom is the Concert Orchestra. Its purpose is to provide opportunity for full orchestra experience and a wider study of orchestral literature. The officers are Jill Beardsley, president; Patty DeVore, vice-president; Lee Goldman, secretary, and Dan Bowers, librarian.

TRAVEL

Sponsored by Mrs. Jeannette B. Smith, the Let's Travel Club has as its purpose the stimulation of the desire to know more about the various places of interest in our world. To do this, slides and films of these places are shown. Officers of this group are Barbara Clark, president; James Rozelle, vice-president; Jane Slater, secretary-treasurer; and Sandy Rothberg, Ed Korte, and Debbie Foster, projectionists.

CHESS

The purpose of these chess players is not only to enjoy the game, but also to extend their skill in playing it. This club is sponsored by Miss Ruth Whittern and has as its president, Rick Ball; Don Poitras is secretary.

STAMP

To learn more about stamp collecting by exchanging ideas and information about the hobby is the purpose of the Stamp Club sponsored by Miss Mary Hahn.

HERITAGE

The Heritage Club, sponsored by Miss Freda Withers, is open to seventh and eighth graders interested in enrichment of their knowledge of United States History. Its purpose, in addition to enhancing the study of history in regular classes, is to foster a love of country and American institutions. Officers are Suzanne Bragg, president; Carol Wamsley, secretary; and Pam Sealts, Ron Doyle, Eric Johnson, and George Zaderej, program committee.

TYPING

The Typing Club is open to eighth graders. Students furnish their own typewriters and are taught the touch system by Mr. Hugh Howenstine, sponsor.

LATIN

Everyone in the Latin Club holds an office. The consuls are Rick Stalter and Ted Malone; the scribes, John McCoy and Dave Miller. There are five aediles, four praetors, two quaestors, and a pontifex maximus. The purpose of the club is to learn how the Romans lived by studying their history and customs through individual projects and Latin newspapers. Sponsor is Mrs. Virginia Loveland.

HOME ECONOMICS

The Home Economics Club is open to ninth grade girls who desire to learn additional clothing construction. Mrs. Janice Zickgraf is sponsor; there are no officers.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

So the boys in the ninth grade have an opportunity to select the shop area for continuing their interest in designing and building according to their own choosing, the Industrial Arts Design and Mechanics Club was formed. Participation in projects that can be worked on at home is encouraged, says Mr. H. Frank Goldman, club sponsor. Officers are Gary Bennett, president; Howard Bower, vice-president; Ed McCutcheon, secretary-treasurer; and Dick Fisher, sergeant-at-arms.

JR. WRANGLERS

1373383

Junior Wranglers has been a speech club at Harrison Hill for over thirty years; Mrs. Ann Gargett has been its sponsor for the past six years. This club strives to promote better speech habits. Participants of Junior Wranglers provide special school programs at Thanksgiving and Christmas; also, in February, a special patriotic program was presented. Rick Kleifgen is chairman; Kathy Hawkins, vice-chairman; Ann Gallatin, secretary; and Gil Hayne, sergeant-at-arms.

DRAMATICS

Sponsored by Mrs. Vera Owens, the Dramatic Reading Club reads plays with emphasis on the art of acting, voice training, choosing and presenting. The club reviewed and presented one play for an audience. Officers are president, Dianne Knigge; vice-president, Jayne Carithers; secretary, Leslie Tieman; and treasurer, Barbara Barker.

Y-TEEN

Y-Teens is a branch of the Young Women's Christian Association. The goals are to increase understanding and appreciation of other religions, to develop well-rounded personalities, and to grow in social graces. Miss Jane Montgomery is sponsor. President is Rita Stettler, vice-president, Cathy Reichert; secretary-treasurer, Suzie Boerger; and devotions chairman, Sharon Kiger.

SERVICE

The Service Club assists teachers in performing any tasks within the classrooms, makes the collection for the Christmas Bureau, and helps on any special assignments designated by Mr. Leininger. Sponsored by Miss Virginia Danuser, the club has as its Board of Directors Ann Gallatin, Margaret Love, Lydia Derkach, Sandy Rothberg, and Gregory Hinshaw.

ART

The purpose of the Art Club is to add richness to the art experience, to stimulate imagination and creative growth, and to develop skills in working with different mediums. Ably guiding the group is Mrs. Jane Irby, sponsor, with Regg Johnson as president and Kathy Hawkins, secretary.

SCIENCE

For seventh and eighth grade students who are interested in some of the less technical and less mathematical phases of science, there is the Science Club. Although it has no officers, it functions successfully under the capable leadership of Mr. Alexander Simpson, sponsor.

LIBRARY

The members of the Library Club learn about the use of and the operation of a library while serving their school as library assistants. The group is sponsored by Miss Donna Keller.

You mean that's what my stomach looks like!

The new library makes those special reports a pleasure.

Dissecting frogs is the menu of the day in this biology class.

The characteristics of folk ballads are explained to a ninth grade English class.

Votes are tabulated for the yearbook name contest.

Ler's see—just how do I get on the right side now?

Sports

Harrison Hill began its season at the Junior High Football Jamboree. The team received its first bad break as the squad was defeated by Franklin in a short game opening the season. The season was not too promising, but the team gained good experience and sportsmanship due to the fine coaching ability of Mr. Edward Innis.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

FLAG TEAM

Flag ball is a game new to the Fort Wayne Schools. The purpose of the game is to teach the fundamentals of football without the chance of injuries. Eighth grade boys participate under the supervision of Mr. John Duffy.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

Kneeling, Candy Carroll, Sue Pressler, Cindy Osborne, and Sue Howde. Standing Judy Lee, Jill Beardsley, Sue Berckmueller, and Sarah Schafer.

SEVENTH and EIGHTH CHEERLEADERS

Kneeling, Janet Plumber, Jody Terry, and Sally Rietdorf. Standing, Karen Baxter, Judie Cole, Joy Bright, and Patty Galloway.

OFFICIALS CLUB

The purpose of the Officials Club is to give girls interested in sports activity the opportunity to learn the skills of officiating different sports and games and to assist in elementary and junior high physical education classes. The sponsor is Miss Beverly Moore.

Our Ninth Grade Varsity Team

Although the basketball team had a bad season this year, the team spirit and the many hours of hard work with Mr. Van Gehl were not unrewarded. The fine turnouts at most of the games and the school spirit showed the team that their work was appreciated by all. The boys certainly enjoyed their season in spite of the defeats.

Our Seventh and Eighth Grade Reserves

The Dance Band Is Always Ready

Triple Trio Sings It Up

The Orchestra at Practice

Mr. John Duffy is track coach. Harrison Hill participated in nine track meets, the last one being the City Track Meet at North Side on May 25.

TRACK

These "cute" cheerleaders add a bit of spice to the pep sessions.

G.A.A.

The Girls' Athletic Association, an organization whose purpose is to give girls the opportunity to develop qualities of sportsmanship and leadership through athletic and sports activities, is sponsored by Miss Beverly Moore. Its officers are Bonnie Hofherr, president; Mary Hershberger, vice-president; and Mary Ellen Webb, secretary. Above are pictured those in ninth grade G.A.A. Below are shown those active in seventh and eighth grade G.A.A. Officers of this latter group are Mary Ann Simmons, president; Barbara Simmons, vice-president; and Diane Melching, secretary.

INTRAMURALS

These are the seventh, eighth, and ninth graders who have participated in intramurals the past year. An opportunity to play football, basketball, and to participate in track is given to these interested students. In addition to the enjoyment the activity affords, good sportsmanship and many skills are learned.

Volleyball is one of the favorite sports in the physical education classes. It gives the players fun and exercise. Here a player "blasts off" for a sure score.

One of the physical education tests is the shuttle run in which each shoe must be carried from one line to another.

Basketball is by far the most popular of all sports in the physical education classes. It develops co-ordination, physical endurance, and sportsmanship.

A replica of one of the seven wonders of the world —the Pyramid.

A basketball player winces as he conjures up an extra pair of hands.

The girls prepare for the re-entry of the volleyball—
or is it in orbit?

One, two, three, kick!

Creative ability and skill are necessary in building pyramids.
